7. The Defendant has not made any payment in respect of the Principal Sum outstanding and/or interest or any payment.
8. The Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) provides that once a notice of demand has been served pursuant to Section 64(2) the total amount of outstanding principal and interest becomes due and payable three months after service of that notice. The Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) by virtue of Section 72(2) provides that if a Chargee has not complied within three months after the date of service of the notice served on him under Section 72(1) the Chargee may sell the charged property.
